Heather Aust
Program 3
Compilers
October 27, 2019

Error Handling Documentation:

Lexical error - Unrecognized characters:
  For unrecognized characters, it will print out an error message that it came across an unrecognized character and then skip the character and continue checking.

Syntax error:
  If Bison can't match something before a semicolon, it will create an error for that entire line, indicating where it first started failing to match.